Own Your Health RI

OYH is a collaborative co-founded in 2016 in the state of RI. The purpose of the collaborative is to provide opportunities for collective impact in regard to evidence-based self-management programs. The Collaborative leverages the influence of multiple organizations needed to build capacity, blend funding, and strengthen community-clinical linkages to enhance the lives of aging Rhode Islanders.

Own Your Health RI

Arthritis-Strategy 1

- Embed AAEBIs into RIDOH's centralized referral system: the Community Health Network (CHN)
- Outreach AAEBIs through the CHN marketing materials to community sites and health care providers
 - AAEBIs are included on all CHN marketing materials
 - CHN Program Manager conducts consistent outreach to health care providers and other organizations with referring capacity to promote program referrals and implementation
- Promote programming through Own Your Health Collaborative efforts
- Offer workshops with the Health Equity Zones (HEZs)
- Continue to promote AAEBIs to RI Medicaid, MCOs, employers, and the RI Employee Benefits office
 - Build upon efforts with the RIDOH Diabetes, Heart Disease, & Stroke Program (1815/1817)
- Create CHN/CDSME Strategic Plan by contracting with a communications media group

Arthritis-Strategy 2

- Assess physical activity/walking counseling activities of Community + Care + Equity (CCE) Providers
- Design a toolkit for providers as a physical activity counseling resource guide
- Connect providers to CHN to refer patients to WWE and other AAEBIs
- Provide toolkit to CCE providers to utilize
 - Conduct physical activity counseling assessment annually
- Utilize findings from CHN/CDSME Strategic Plan to improve number of referring providers to CHN and programs

Arthritis-Strategy 3

- Offer mini grants annually to community-based organizations and employers as seed money to implement WWE
 - Award up to $2,000 per site to aid in the implementation of WWE including materials recruitment, data collection, etc.
 - Awardees are required to host a minimum of one WWE program
- Promote WWE through CHN and Own Your Health Collaborative
- Utilize marketing, communication, and sustainability strategies defined in Strategic Plan to increase the number of WWE participants and programs in RI

Arthritis-Strategy 4

- Create annual Arthritis/CDSME report
- Disseminate program/workshop information regularly through the HEZ newsletter, CCE newsletter, and Connections newsletter
- Collect Core and Optional Arthritis BRFSS modules
- Disseminate programmatic success stories
